Your generous sponsorship will help us to create an enjoyable and productive show for everyone involved. ToyFest's main objective is to foster successful business relationships between reps, manufacturers and independent retailers. ROI at ToyFest is not only about the numbers in the 3-day show, but also about the orders that are made in the months after ToyFest, the leads obtained for the entire year, the catalogs that retailers use for the next few months and the presence that reps and manufacturers have at the show that make relationships for years to come.

ToyFest Attendees will bring ROI to your company. Use your marketing dollars wisely and get your name in front of Buyers at ToyFest.

ToyFest has nearly 750 retail stores that attend the Las Vegas show each year from Toy & Gift Stores from from 48 states, Belgium, Bermuda, Brazil, Canada, Cayman Islands, Costa Rica, Guam, Korea, Mexico, Micronesia, Panama, Philippines, South America, the UK, and Venezuela.. "ToyFest 2023 was bustling with buyers from all over the country, and the World Market Center was filled with energy and excitement. Retailers, manufacturers, and sales reps come together each year for an incredible B to B tradeshow. ToyFest will continue to grow with your help and get better each year." said Sandy Lepire, ToyFest President
